

IVL Finance Limited

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL POLICY

(Reviewed and Approved by the Board as on 25/04/2017)

Introduction

The IVL Finance Limited (“IVLFL”) as a service organization, imparting good customer service and enhancing level of customer satisfaction is our prime concern. Providing prompt and efficient service is essential to attract new customers, as well as to retain existing ones. Increase in market share and building brand value is possible only by providing quality service in the shortest possible time ensuing prompt redressal of customer complaints and grievances.

The review mechanism for grievance redressal should also help in identifying shortcomings in product features and service delivery.

Our policy on grievance redressal follows the under noted principles.

- Customers to be treated fairly at all times.
- Complaints raised by customers are dealt with courtesy and without undue delay.
- Grievances of pensioners physically challenged and senior citizens are dealt with on priority.
- Customers are fully informed of avenues to escalate their complaints/grievances within the organization and their rights to alternative remedy, if they are not fully satisfied with the response of the NBFC to their complaints.
- All complaints to be dealt with efficiently and fairly as otherwise they can damage our reputation and business.
- Our employees would work in good faith and without prejudice to the interests of the customer.

In order to make our Grievance Redressal Mechanism more meaningful and effective, a structured system has been built up towards such an end. This system would ensure that the redressal sought is just and fair and is permissible within the given frame-work of rules and regulation.

However in relation to grievance redressal procedures, we have a dedicated email id displayed on our website to log on any grievance by any customer if he wants to do so grievance_dhani@indiabulls.com

1. A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction made to an organization, related to its products, or services, or the complaints' handling process itself, where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected.

The reason for customer complaint can be divided into two main categories:

- The behavioural aspects in dealing with customers
- Inadequacy of the working/operations or gaps in standards of services expected and actual services rendered.

The customer has a right to register his complaint if he is not satisfied with the services provided. There are four main ways to complain - in person, by telephone, by mail/post or by e-mail/internet. Complaints received through all these channels must be handled efficiently and swiftly. If customer's complaint is not resolved within the prescribed time frame or if he is not satisfied with the solution provided by us, he can approach RBI with his complaint.

2. Internal Machinery to handle Customer complaints/ grievances:

2.1 Complaint Registration:

A customer may lodge a complaint on phone, in writing or through electronic means, if he/she is not satisfied with the services provided by IVLFL.

Arrangements for receiving complaints and suggestions are given hereunder.

Customer can also call through exclusive help line to register his/her complaint. Whenever a complaint call or mail is received, sender receives a response back within three working days acknowledging his/her complaint.

Further whenever any complaint is received in the form of a hardcopy i.e. through any letter etc, same is recorded in a register. In all such cases, our representative calls/contacts customer at the earliest to find out the exact nature of his/her complaint.

In relation to all complaints received through regulators, we record all such complaints in a complaint register. After receiving and recording such complaints our representatives contacts clients and also find out the facts of the complaint to resolve them on urgent basis.

2.2 Complaints in Person:

A Complaint book is available at the branches. A customer can obtain it from the branch and record his/her grievances therein.

Customer may use complaint/visitors book kept at branch for any feedback/ suggestions for improvement in our products and services.

2.3 Call Centre:

Complaints can also be lodged at IVLFL's Call Centre on 1860-419-3333.

Whenever a complaint call is received, sender receives a reply back confirming acknowledgement of his complaint.

2.4 Complaints through mail/e-mail:

Customer can also submit complaint by post or through e-mail. Complaints received by e-mail shall be acknowledged by e-mail. Whenever a complaint call is received, sender receives a reply back confirming acknowledgement of his complaint. Complaints can also be lodged at IVLFL's e-mail id: grievance_dhani@indiabulls.com

3. Resolution of Grievances:

3.1 Grievances related to attitudinal aspects:

Such complaints should be handled courteously, sympathetically and above all swiftly. Misbehaviour/rude behaviour with customers be treated at Zero tolerance level and immediate action is to be taken. IVLFL, under no circumstances, tolerate misbehaviour of any degree by our staff members.

3.2 Grievances relating to transactions /operations:

Primarily Branch is responsible for the resolution of complaints/grievances in this category. Branch would be responsible for ensuring rectification of entry / transaction or satisfaction of customers. It is the foremost duty of the branch to see that the complaint is resolved to the customer's satisfaction and if he is not satisfied, then to provide him with alternate avenues to escalate the issue. In case, it is not getting resolved at branch level, they can refer the case to Head Office for guidance/resolution.

3.3 In case customer is unhappy with the service or redressal provided by the IVLFL, he can also approach RBI for redressal. The contact details are displayed at each branch.

4. Time frame:

Complaints are to be seen in the right perspective because these indirectly reveal a weak spot in the working of the Company. Complaints received would be analyzed from all possible angles. IVLFL will endeavour to send an acknowledgement within three working days of receipt. Complaint should be resolved maximum within 30 working days from the date of receipt.

Time matrix for dealing complaint redress process with escalation matrix for various natures of complaints has been given in Annexure. Departments/officials dealing with the customer complaints are required to strictly adhere to the same.

Periodical MIS on complaint is generated and circulated amongst the senior officials of the Company for their knowledge and further instructions, if any.

5. Review Mechanism

5.1 Customer Service Review by Customers' Grievance / Risk Management Committee

There is a specific service committee of the Management which periodically reviews major areas of customer grievances and measures taken to improve customer service.

The committee would also consider unresolved complaints/grievances and may offer its advice.

7. Interaction with customers:

The IVLFL recognizes that customer's expectation/requirement/ grievances can be better appreciated through personal interaction with customers by their staff. Many of the complaints arises on account of lack of awareness among customers about services offered and such interactions helps customers to avail such services and it reduces the no of queries/complaints at later stage.

8. Sensitizing operating staff for improvement in service & handling complaints:

8.1 Complaints occur very often due to lack of knowledge and awareness of the products and services. The Nodal Officer is required to give feedback on training needs of staff at various levels to the Central Training Centres.

8.2 IVLFL deal with customers from different segments, which may give rise to difference of opinion and areas of friction. To deal with customers with a positive attitude and a customer friendly behaviour, the selection of front line staff should be carefully done. With an open mind and a smile on the face, staff should be able to win the customer's confidence. Imparting soft skills required for handling irate customers, should be an integral part of the training programs. It would be the responsibility of the Nodal Officer to ensure that the internal machinery for handling complaints/grievances operates smoothly and efficiently at all levels.
